Junior Membership

All Juniors attending coaching lessons are required to be members of Buckhurst Hill Bowling and Lawn Tennis Club for insurance purposes (from their second lesson onwards). The annual Junior Membership fee is £35 (£20 for those under 11 years of age) and the year runs from 1 April – 31 March.

What does membership give junior players?

- After school and during school holidays: Juniors can use courts 3 & 4 and the mini court provided they are enrolled in a coaching programme with the club coach and the courts are not being used or required by full adult members.
- A junior member may bring a parent or guardian onto a court (please make sure you wear non-marking tennis shoes so we can keep our courts looking great. You may need to purchase your own supply of age-appropriate balls... the red, orange or green ones)
- Before or after your lesson with the coach junior members and their parents are welcome to play on courts 3, 4 or 5 (mini) provided they are not being used. There may be times when club matches are on or members have booked these courts. If so, then unfortunately it won't be possible on those occasions to use the courts. However, there are typically courts free and available.
- Juniors over the age of nine, once signed up as a member of the LTA (Lawn Tennis Association), can enter the club draw to win the chance to purchase Wimbledon tickets.

We encourage parents and their children to enjoy their time together on the tennis courts. A positive tennis experience is good for everyone and we are pleased to offer these family-friendly opportunities as part of the junior membership of the tennis section at Buckhurst Hill Bowling and Lawn Tennis Club.

We are very pleased to welcome you as a Junior Member of our Club. Enjoy! 😊

Sincerely,

Inga Ziemina
